JACQUARD

Jacquard is a style of weaving that is defined by the fact that its process raises independent warp threads to create a textured pattern. Named after its creator, Joseph Marie Jacquard, a French weaver and merchant who lived during the late 1700s and early 1800s, this technique is the inspiration of our collection.

Harnessing the natural softness and delicateness of textile, enhanced with a subtly created textured pattern, Jacquard collection creates a contradiction by combining it with a concrete effect to conceive an elegantly modern collection in our new striking 45x120cm wall tile format. An ideal combination that will prove equally stunning in residential as well as hospitality projects.

Jacquard es un estilo de tejido basado en una técnica que eleva hilos de urdimbre independientes para crear un diseño con textura. Esta técnica es la inspiración de nuestra nueva colección, la cual recibió el nombre de su creador, Joseph Marie Jacquard, un tejedor y comerciante francés que vivió a finales de 1700 y principios de 1800.

Basándonos en la suavidad y la delicadeza del textil, y realizado con un relieve sutilmente creado, la colección Jacquard crea una contradicción al combinar este material con un efecto cemento para concebir una colección moderna de gran elegancia. Una combinación ideal que resultará igualmente impresionante en casas privadas como proyectos comerciales en nuestro espectacular formato 45x120cm con su correspondiente pavimento técnico.
